Dear Hal

Sorry I couldn't get to call you back while you were in New Orleans, but Paul Hoch told me that you had called him. Neither Paul nor I were able to contact Stan. Paul told me, however, that you were going to be talking to someone about the Doyle film and so I didn't call for this reason.

I am still working on a transcript of Brosnears's two interviews which I promised you. The essentials you already know and I presume Garrison's office does too by now.

I'm enclosing the Barb's article written by myself under the pen name Hal White. An interesting thing that came out of the interview with Brosnears was his statement that the Universal Life Church had granted a charter to the Abundant Life Church in Dallas which was my suspicion that I once pointed out to you.

A name that Brosnears mentioned in the interview who I am going to be looking in to is James H. Taylor. Brosnears claims that he is a close friend of Crissan, ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> nails from Sultan, Washington and has also resided in Tacoma and Seattle. Brosnears says he is gay. He now is or was a manager of Mohr's cafeteria in San Francisco. Do you know anything about him? If not perhaps Garrison's staff should be advised.

I know nothing more about Brosnears's fantastic claim that a Carlos Munoz was one of the assassins who killed the President. I'll get Paul Hoch to check the archive documents for his name and also Jim Schmidt.

Will close now. Have to get this off. Please write soon.

Best
